

Core CPD workshop: Administrative Law: Recent judicial reviews, the 457 visa scheme and Ethical issues

19 October 2015, 8:30 AM – 12:30 PM
COUNCIL ROOM, LAW SOCIETY NORTHERN TERRITORY
LEVEL 3, 9 CAVENAGH STREET, DARWIN NT, 0801

Overview

Presented for lawyers who practise in Commonwealth and State administrative law jurisdictions, each seminar is designed to be practical in its focus and aimed at updating and educating lawyers about recent developments in areas of administrative law, illustrating practical examples to understand approaches that can be taken to address issues.

Sessions Covered:

- Recent Judicial review cases and public interest litigation
- Intersection of Employment Law and the 457 visa scheme
- Ethical issues in Administrative Law

Who should attend?

- Lawyers who practise in Commonwealth and State administrative law jurisdictions.
- Lawyers with clients who access government information or are the subject of government decisions.
- Immigration Lawyers and others with interest in Australian administrative law

What you will gain. This half-day workshop offers a unique opportunity to learn or update your knowledge about current judicial administrative law mechanisms as well as 3 Core competency CPD Points for attendance.

3 Core CPD Points

Presenters:

Joseph Crowley

Joseph Crowley is a barrister at the Queensland Bar and a visiting member of the Northern Territory Bar. He practised in criminal and administrative law and has acted for a number of high profile clients in different states including miscarriage of justice victims Graham Stafford and Henry Keogh and serial bank robber and prison escapee John Killick. He has acted pro bono in public interest litigation including recently acting for tattoo parlour operators in the first review under the Newman Governments VLAD laws. He also lectures at Bond University and coordinates the Bond University Human Rights Law Clinic.

Oliver Jones

Oliver holds a Bachelor of Laws with First Class Honours and the University Medal, a Bachelor of Arts in International Studies from the University of Technology, Sydney and a Bachelor of Civil Law from Oxford University, which he attended as a British Chevening Scholar.

Admitted as a legal practitioner in 2002, Oliver has worked as a Judge's Associate at the Federal Court and as a solicitor and advocate at Herbert Smith London and Clayton Utz Sydney.

Oliver is a barrister at New Chambers, Sydney. His principal areas of practice are Administrative Law, including migration; Costs, Probate and Land Law. He is also briefed in cases involving statute and constitutional law and international law. He is the editor of leading English text, Bennion on Statutory Interpretation.

Andrew George

Andrew was called to the Queensland Bar in March 2011 and moved to William Forster Chambers in February 2014. He practices in administrative, commercial and criminal law. Andrew has taught Insolvency & Restructuring Law, Energy & Resources Law and Land Contracts at the University of Southern Queensland. Andrew served in the Iraq War, East Timor and Afghanistan in the RAAF prior to his call to the Bar. He maintains a particular pro bono interest in appellate Veterans' matters.

Program

8.30 – 9.00am	Welcome tea/Coffee Registration
Session 1 9.00 – 10.00am 1 CPD Point   or   Level: All levels of legal	Presenter: Joseph Crowley Bond University 'Recent Judicial review cases and public interest litigation' This session will cover: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Judicial review cases

practice	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Statutory interpretation • Procedural fairness • Key challenges
10.00 – 10.15am	BREAK - Morning Tea
Session 2 10.15 – 11.15am 1 CPD Point   or   Level: All levels of legal practice	Presenter: Oliver Jones New Chambers, Sydney 'Intersection of Employment Law and the 457 visa scheme <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Employment agreements for 457 visa worker • Employer obligations including sponsorship and nominating employees • Penalties for abuse of 457 visa scheme • Interaction with government agencies • Risk management
Session 3 11.15 – 12.15am 1 CPD Point  Level: All levels of legal practice	Presenter: Andrew George Barrister, William Forster Chambers Ethical issues in Administrative Law <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Applicable rules for professional conduct • Conflict of interest in pro bono matters • Compliance with the guidelines
12.15pm	Close.

Light refreshments will be provided.

Register on the following link: Click Here to Register for this Event
or QR Code

Cancellation Policy:

24 hours' Notice of Cancellation is required or attendees will be charged. Substitutions can be made at any time. No refunds or credits will be given to delegates who fail to attend the event.